"The entrance to our Longhouse"

FOREWORD

As students of W.C.S., we probably haven't realized or appreciated the appealing nature that Indains have lent to our school Crest or to the name of our annual, the Hackensack. Both have distinct Indian backgrounds in either original idea or name.

As a result, the staff of this year's Hackensack felt that it might be appropriate to have a yearbook built around the theme of "Indians."

We hope that you enjoy your trek around our reservation and get acquainted with the members of our tribe.

DEDICATION

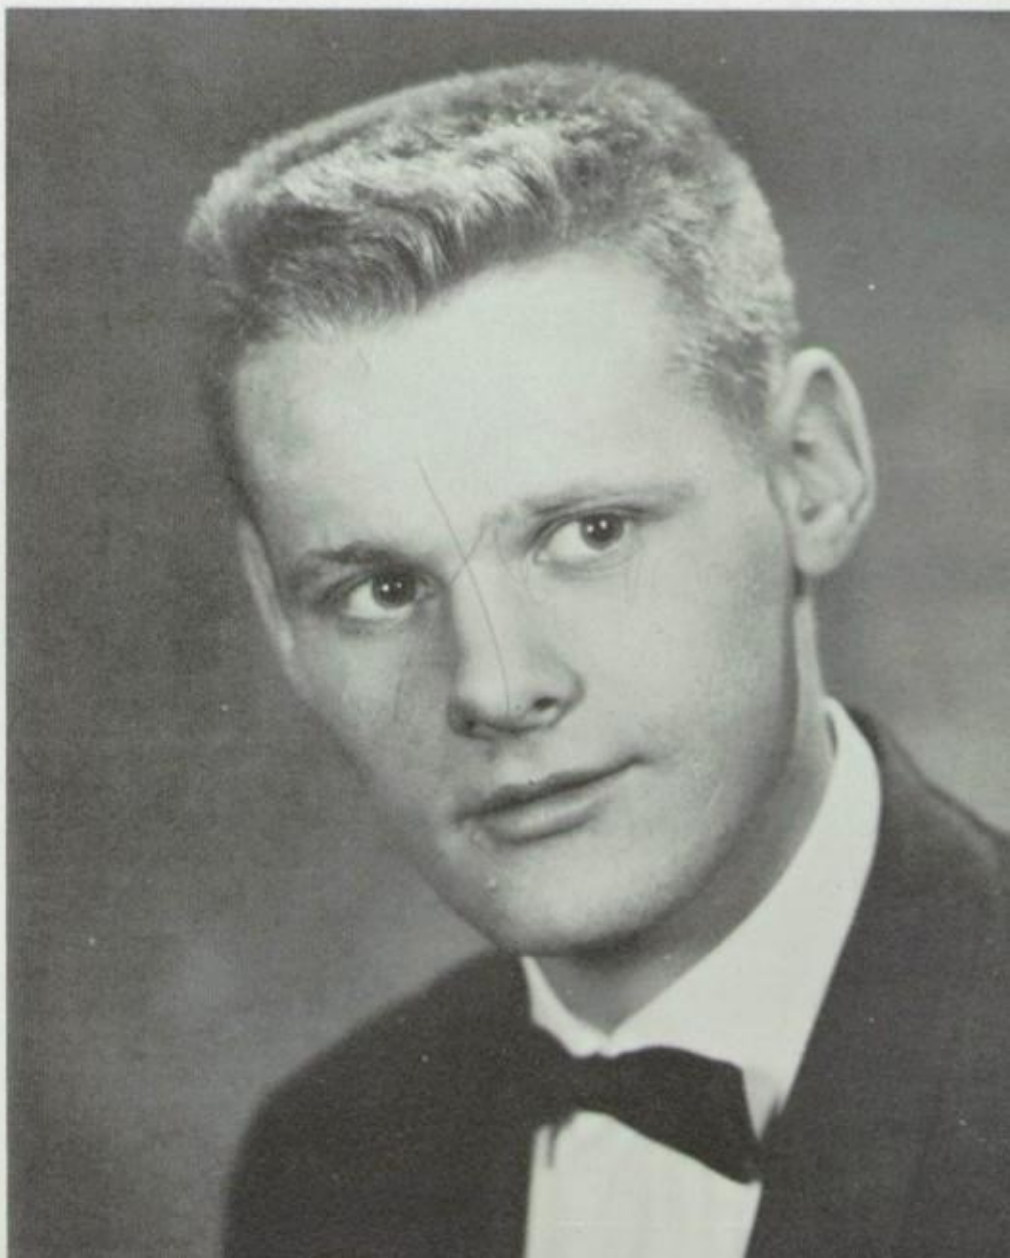
Mrs. Armine Gurney: years of dedicated service to Warrensburg Central School; calm assuredness in the face of students brilliant, boisterous, bewildered; such proficiency in languages and all the math courses; never losing your patience and under standing, your sweet smile and sunny temper; making the junior high bowlers so happy by organizing their own team; working with the high school girls activity periods on knitting—all this is remembered; all this is appreciated. Every one of us sincerely hopes you will achieve your long-awaited trip to France.

To you, Mrs. Gurney, for your past of accomplishments and your future of further happiness, we dedicate this 1960 Hackensack.

After much careful thought by a committee of the faculty, two members of the senior class were chosen to represent the school as Mr. and Miss W. C. S. These outstanding members of the senior class were selected based on . . .

MR. AND MISS W. C. S.

Betsey Remington and Robert Millward



. . . their service to the school, physical health, social poise, mental strength, spiritual vision, personality, and courtesy.

These qualifications were established when the awards were begun.

After many hours of deliberation because of the intense competition, Betsey Remington and Robert Millward were awarded this highest senior honor.

ADMINISTRATION and FACULTY

Warrensburg Central School

Warrensburg, New York

Durward D. Weaver
Supervising Principal

TO THE CLASS OF 1960:

You people have successfully completed the requirements for graduation here at Warrensburg Central and congratulations are due you. I know there have been many times when you have felt the end would never come, but now that it is here, I am sure you can look back on many happy memories and experiences.

As I look back over the three years that I have known you, it would seem that you have made satisfactory progress and adjustments and are now prepared to make your way into the adult life of the community of your choice. I hope that your school and your teachers have been able to give you the tools that you will need in the future.

My fondest wish for each member of the Class of 1960 is that you will continue to develop those qualities of character and citizenship which are so necessary in the building of successful lives.

Sincerely yours,

Durward Weaver

CLASSES

JAMES A. BAKER

Handsome and athletic, Jim always had friendly words for all. A hard worker, Jim helped heartily in all of our money raising projects.

He participated with honors on the basketball team in all of his four high school years. Soccer was also a favorite with Jim, and he was a member of the soccer team for three years. He went out for bowling in his sophomore and junior years, and he was also a fire warden as a junior and senior.

Courteous and jovial, Jim was a true friend in many ways.

CLARK E. BARLOW

Clark, another of our active and athletic seniors participated in football for four years, and he was co-captain as a senior. He played basketball for three years.

He served as the president of the Varsity Club as a senior, and he was a fire warden as a junior and senior, with the title of "Chief" of the Wardens.

As a member of the newly formed wrestling team, Clark "did himself proud," and he was chosen captain of the squad.

Likeable Clark worked hard for the class and every other organization he participated in.

NANCY J. BATES

Always one to enjoy a friendly song, Nancy sang in the chorus for four years and added much to its soprano section.

An avid bowling fan, she participated on the Girls' Bowling team and she was one of the highest bowlers in the class.

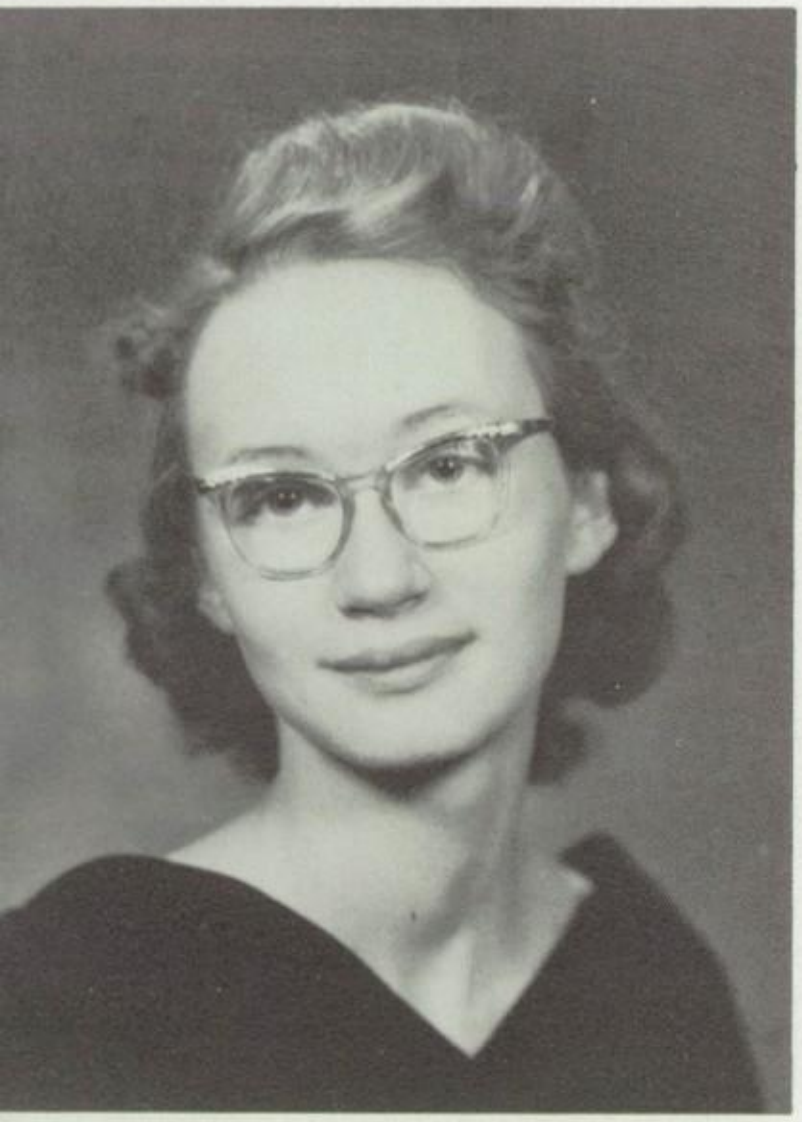
A super saleslady, Nancy brought in many dollars towards the class's Washington trip fund and she went all out in helping with our many activities.

Nancy's smile will long be remembered by the students at W C S.

ROSE M. BESWICK

Quiet and sincere, Rose was not to be forgotten as a member of the class, for she was noted for her ceaseless smile which she unhesitatingly displayed for all.

Rose was a member of the Homemaking Club as a freshman and Pep Club as a junior. She cheered wholeheartedly at our sports activities even though her voice was diminutive.



BRENDA J. BILLS

As a senior, Brenda spent many happy first periods as a member of the soprano section of the school chorus.

She was a member of the Homemaking Club when a freshman, and her ability to mix a perfect cake every time she baked was never doubted by her classmates. She often served on the refreshment committees for our dances.

Brenda was truly a swell and sincere member of the Class of '60.

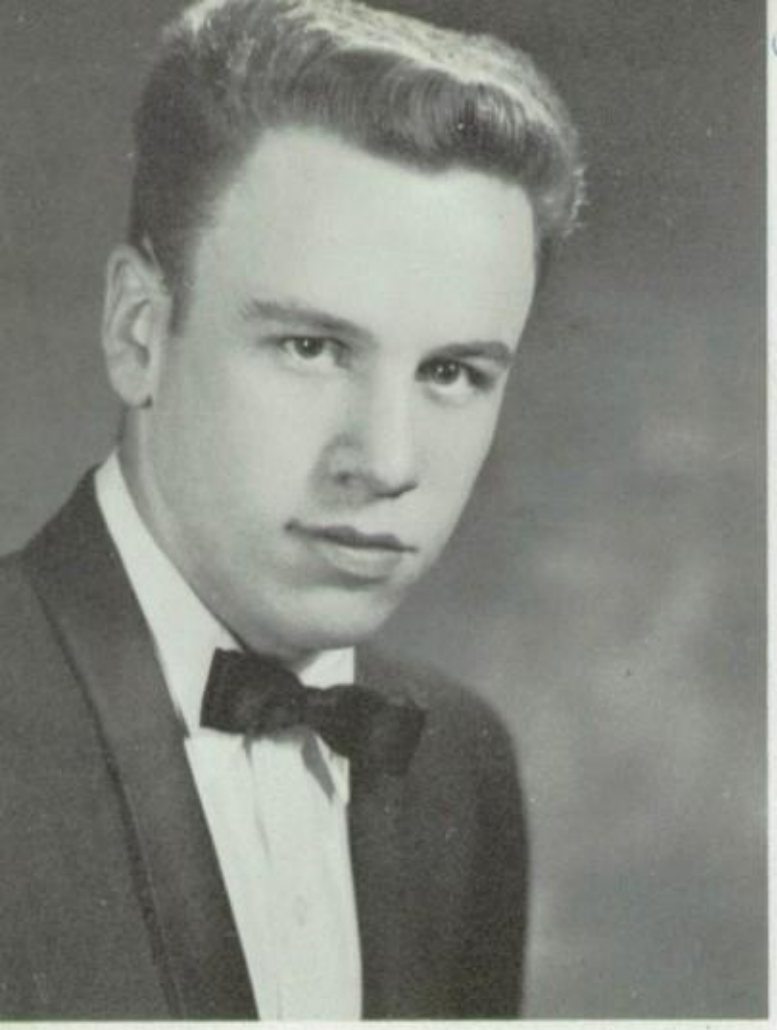
BONNIE H. BINDER

Energetic Bonnie was a cheerleader when a junior and senior in high school. She wrote vigorously for the Hi-Rock as a sophomore and senior, and she was a member of Science Club as a junior.

Bonnie played fine parts in the Senior Plays presented when she was a junior and senior.

She was a captain of a bowling team as a senior, which topped off her three years as a faithul bowler.

Pretty Bonnie was both popular and active in high school



Best of luck to you in whatever you do especially in football

KENNETH E. CAMERON

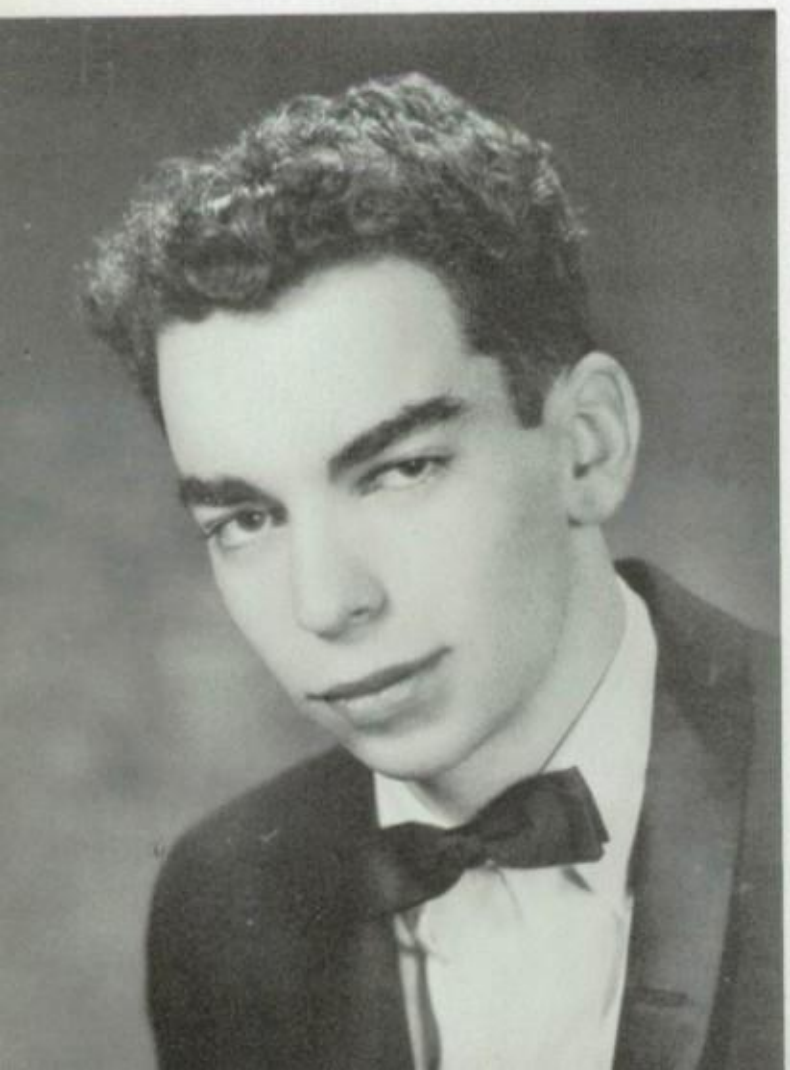
An avid sports fan, Ken participated with honors on the football and baseball squads.

He was a member of the Varsity Club and he contributed much to the activities of the Varsity Club and the Senior Class. He was a fire warden, and he never left the smoke signals alone!

MARY D. CAMERON

As an enthusiastic member of the Girls' bowling teams, Mary demonstrated her skill. Besides being active in Homemaking Club as a sophomore, Mary was a faithful ticket seller at athletic events when a sophomore and junior.

Mary's sparkling hazel eyes and soft voice characterized her appearance and personality.

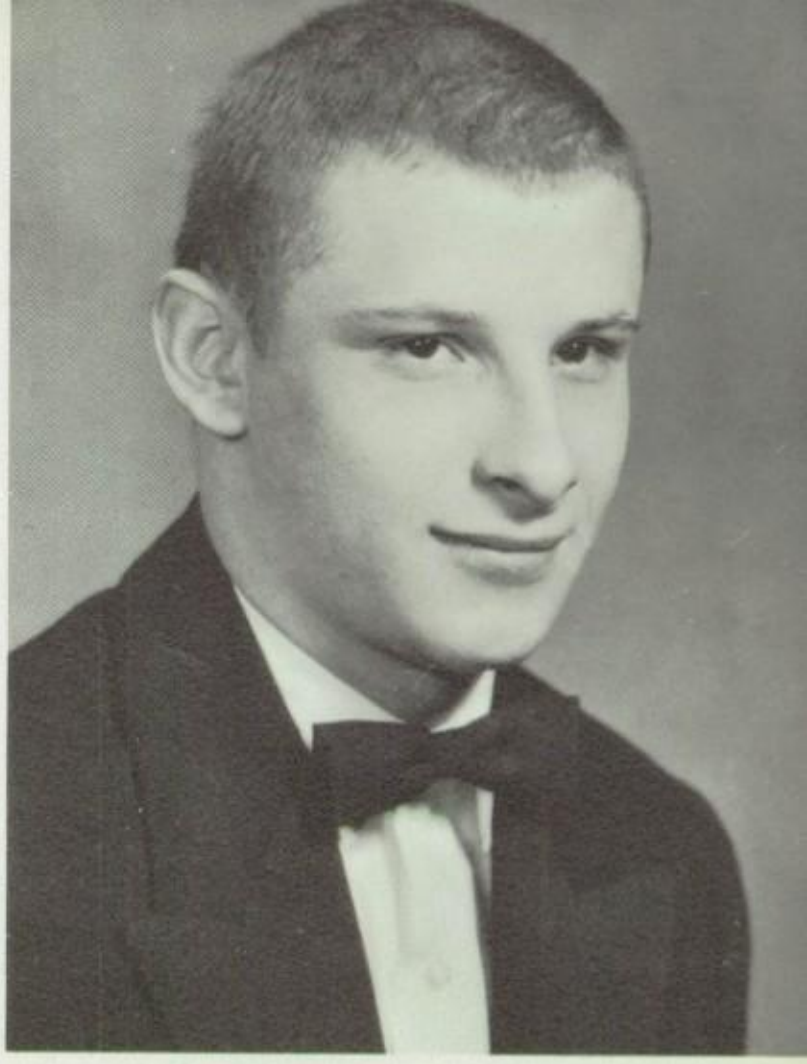


STEVEN D. CAMERON

Steve, the Warrensburg to Montreal (along Route 9) ticket seller, demonstrated his skill in bringing in dollars for the seniors as an expert salesman.

He was on the scenery committee for the Senior Play as a senior, and he brightened up the thoughts of the other workers through his witty contributions.

Steve could be found working on projects in Industrial Arts in his spare time, for this type of activity was what he enjoyed.



WAYNE J. DE LUDE

In his junior and senior years, Wayne was a member of the soccer team. He also participated in the newly formed wrestling team.

As a Hi-Rock member, Wayne contributed to the Art department.

The students of W C S will never forget Wayne's uproarious performance in this year's Senior Play.

Wayne contributed both fun and profit to the class.

ALLISON G. DE MATTIES

Allison was a member of the snappy twirling squad of the W C S band for two years.

Bowling was popular with Allison, and she was a bowler when a sophomore, junior and senior in high school. She also participated in chorus and its many activities.

Allison enjoyed the many hours spent in Arts and Crafts class, where she could put her artistic abilities to full appreciation.

CAROL M. FISHER

As a late comer, Carol soon caught up with her classmates and began joining in their money raising activities.

She was a captain of one of the bowling teams as a senior.

Carol was a hard worker in the band for three years, as an ingredient of the flute section.

With an air of loquaciousness, Carol rounded out her high school years.

JUDITH A. FRULLA

With many musical interests, Judy was a four-year member of the clarinet section of our band, and a faithful chorus soprano also. She earned the privilege of attending All-State for three years due to the hard work she did in these activities.

Many a business letter was sent by Judy as she was our class secretary for three years.

Always available to help the class out, Judy did more than her share of working hard on Senior projects.

JENNIE M. HASTINGS

Seldom missing a dance, Jennie could always be found selling tickets or preparing refreshments. All-State was the result of her hard work in the chorus, of which she was a member for four years.

Her quietly reserved personality, joined with a warm and ready smile, will make her long remembered by the students of W. C. S.

SHARON I. HUNTER

Sharon was the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

She was a member of the chorus as a freshman and sophomore, and a majorette as a junior and senior.

She was an active participant in the Hi-Rock all during her high school years and she served as editor-in-chief for two years; she helped immensely on the yearbook for three years.

Shari served as vice-president of the FTA when a senior, and she was also a cheerleader as a freshman.

Athletic as well as active, Shari participated in bowling, basketball and volleyball throughout her high school career.

RODERIC K. KENYON

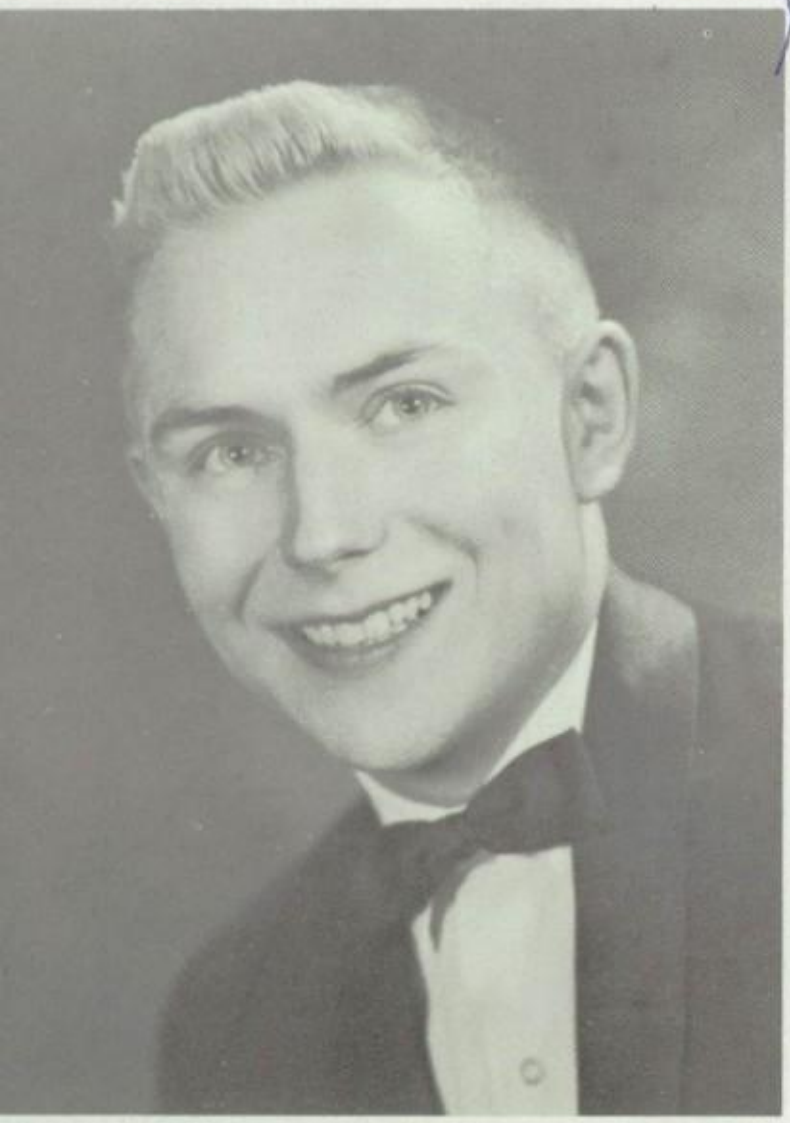
With a handful of bills, Rod could be found hurrying from homeroom to the office, doing his best as the class treasurer.

For two years, Rod went to All-State as the result of three years of participation in chorus.

On the Hackensack and Hi-Rock staffs, Rod donated his helpful services. Perseverence, determination, and knowledge went into making Roderic a good all-round student.

He played in and helped with two Senior Play productions.

Bo,
The best of luck always to a fine student and friend!
Keep up your good work in school and have fun! Best Wishes, Rod



RICHARD S. KLINE

Fun-loving Dick, a little devilish with a touch of daring, brought laughter and gaiety to his classmates.

An avid skier, Dick, if missing on a weekend, could be found on the nearest or the farthest slope, riding up with the best of 'em.

His executive character was shown in his able assistance as the co-manager of the Business Staff of the Hackensack, and as vice-president of the senior class.

As a junior, Dick attended Boys State. He performed nobly in two of our most successful senior play productions.

A band member for three years, Dick added much to the saxophone section of the band with his cool Alto.

GENE A. LANE

"Mountaineer," as Gene was known by his classmates, was a true hunter and fisherman. In the spring, when a young brave's heart turned to thoughts of love, Gene's, as we all remember, turned to trout!

As a member of the yearbook Business Staff and the Boys Bowling team, Gene showed his versatility.

Gene and his mellow baritone horn, were a welcome sight in band every 4th period for four years. He attended All-State band as a senior.

Friendly to all, Gene was popular with both the faculty and the students of the tribe.

SHARON B. LAMB

Sherry was the winner of a Regents Scholarship and she was also a member of the National Honor Society for two years.

She served as a cheerleader for four years, and she was a captain for two years. Majoretting was also one of her important activities. She was a three year band member and a two year chorus member.

Sherry had roles in two of the Senior Play productions, and she was also a member of FTA and Science Club when a junior.

She served as layout editor of the year-book for two years.

Always bubbly and busy, Sherry certainly did her share of the class work and play.

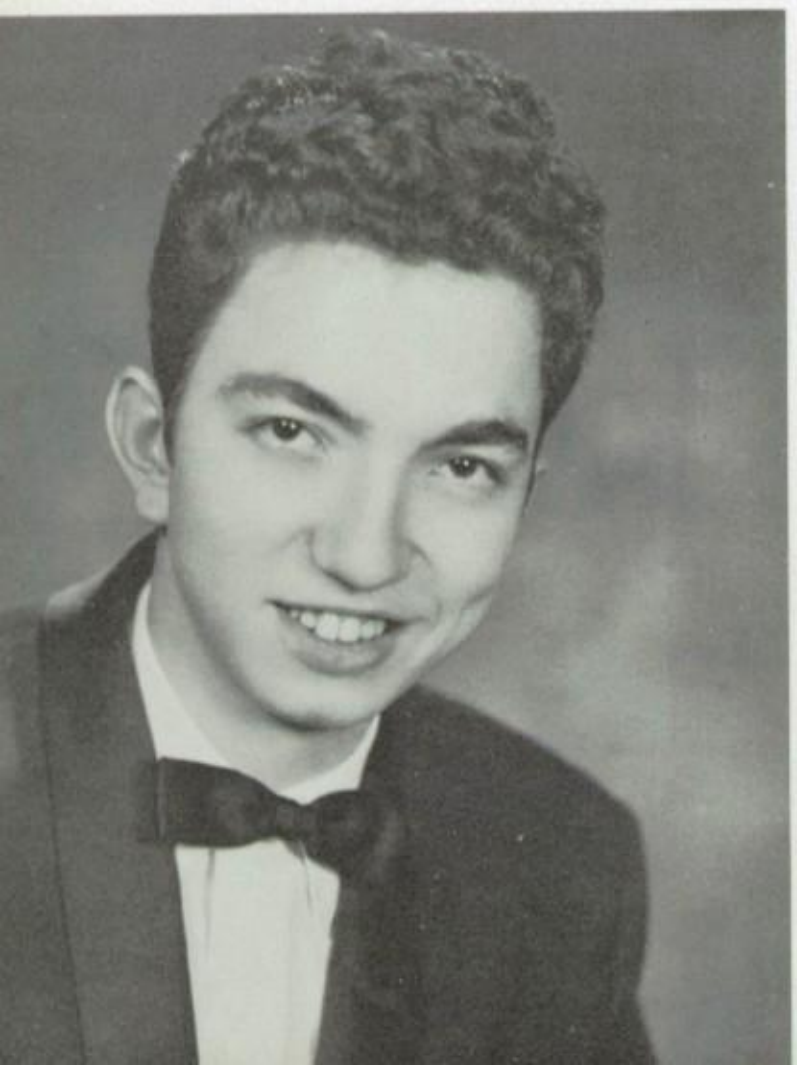
OSCAR LIBREROS R.

With nonchalance, Oscar joined our class for the remaining senior year.

Our Casanova did much to add to the merriment and mischievousness of the Class of '60.

Oscar added spirit and skill to our soccer team, for he was accustomed to the sport and he was an accomplished player. This was attributed to the fact that soccer is a very popular sport in his home country, Colombia, South America.

The idiosyncrasies of our "amigo" will be in many memories of his classmates.



DAVID P. MC NEILL

A zealous sports fan, "Murph" participated in soccer for two years, baseball for three years, and basketball in his freshman year.

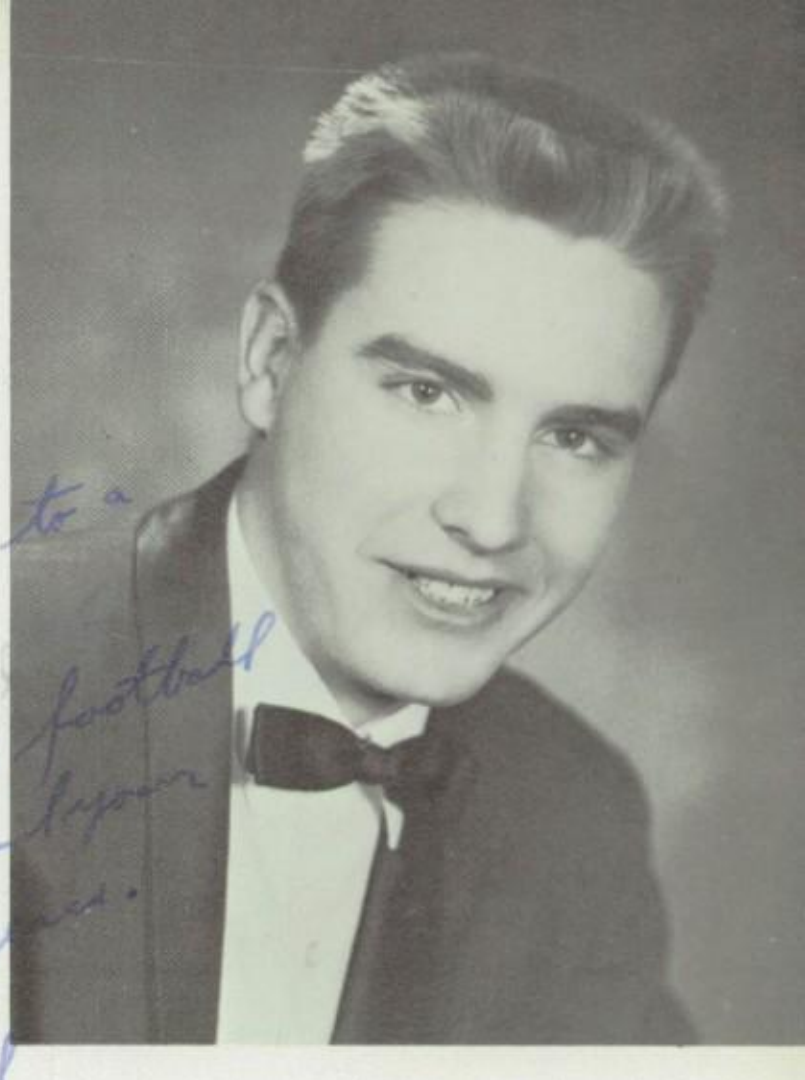
Hunting and fishing were popular pastimes of Dave throughout his high school years.

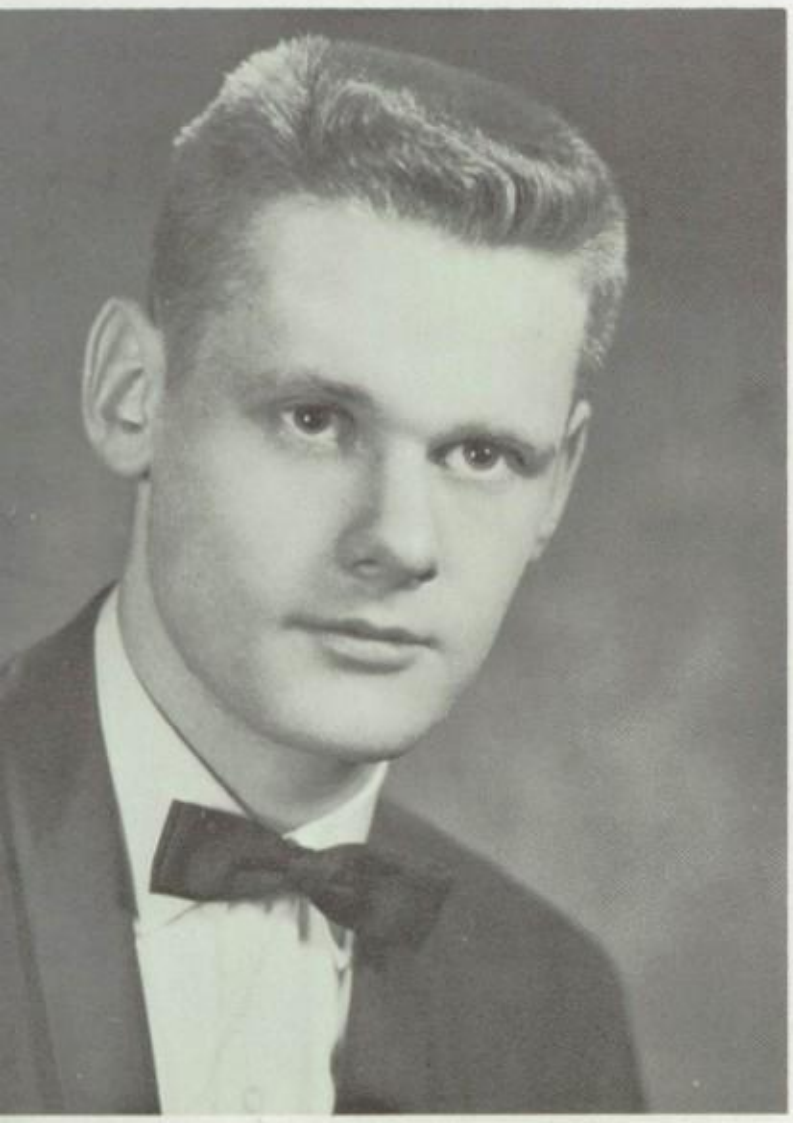
EDWARD L. MERRITHEW

As All-American in his junior year, Ed excelled in football, basketball, golf, bowling and baseball. He was elected vice-president of the Varsity Club as a junior and he was re-elected as a senior.

Ed was a helpful member of the Business Staff of the Hackensack.

With his temperamental Ford, Ed was always ready for good times with the seniors.





ROBERT E. MILLWARD

A member of the Student Council in his sophomore and senior years, Bob was a truly qualified representative of the class. He was a delegate to Boys' State in his junior year.

As a member of the Business Staff of the yearbook in his sophomore year, Bob prepared himself for Director of Advertising in his junior year, and for the job of co-manager of the staff as a senior.

Soccer was a popular sport with Bob, along with basketball. In his junior and senior years, Bob participated in Varsity Club.

Everyone will remember those knickers that Bob sported in the Senior Play, and the blare of the trombone section of the band that signified Bob's presence, for he was a five year band member.

Levelheaded and versatile, Bob will be remembered for the many valuable contributions that he made for the class as its president in the year that counted so much.

FRANK A. MUNDY

Frank, a latecomer from a tribe to the North, wasted no time in becoming one of the important members of the class.

When he joined us as a junior, he was promptly elected to the Student Council and he continued this service as a senior.

He was indispensable to the Senior Play in his junior year, for a late illness forced him to take a part in the matinee which no one could have done a finer job in playing at such short notice.

While at Chester, Frank participated in football and basketball, and he was a member of the staff of the school newspaper.

MARIANNE A. MUNDY

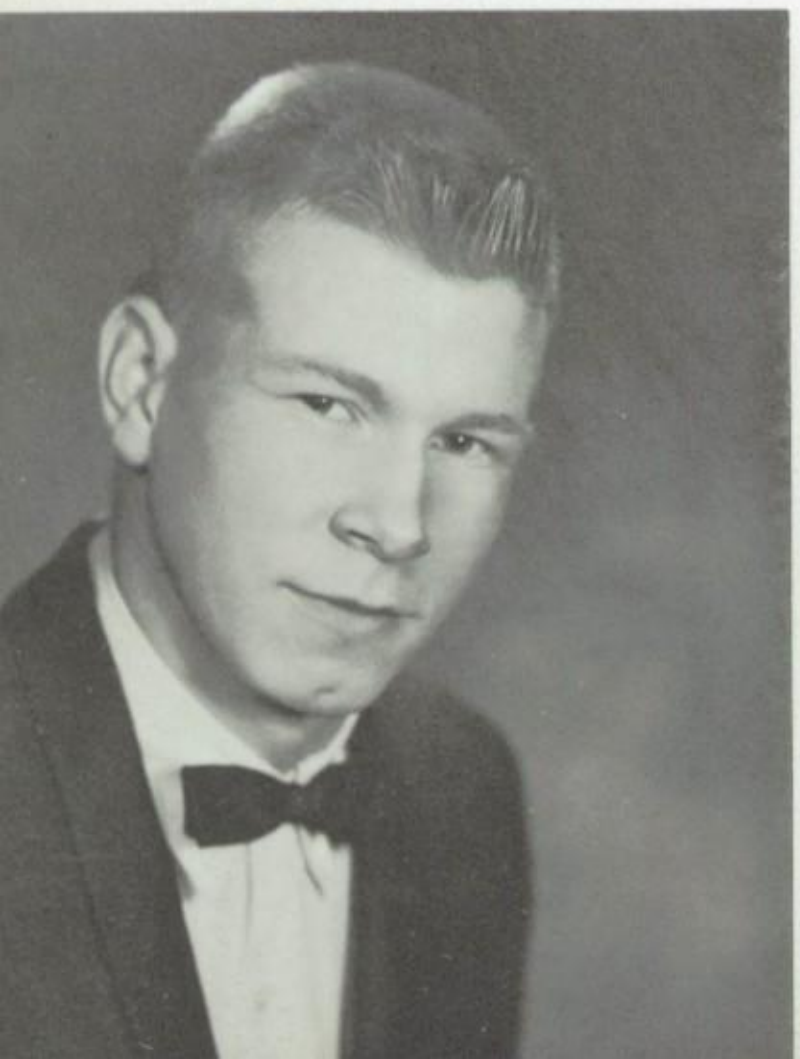
Joining the tribe in her junior year, Marianne added undubiously to the merriment and activities of the class. Her athletic abilities were proven when she was a cheerleader, a member of the girls' volleyball team, and a bowling team captain. Her sparkling smile will be remembered by her classmates as she opened another "round of R.C."

SANDRA S. NEEDHAM

As secretary of her class in her sophomore year, Sandi proved successful.

She was a member of many clubs, and she studied Beauty Culture at Queensbury for two years.

Sandi was always ready to lend a helping hand in the various activities our class promoted.



Bo,
Keep up the good work in sports (also school). May success always be yours. Best wishes
Neil Parker

NEIL D. PARKER

All-around athletic ability was found in Neil. As a member of the football, soccer, basketball, and baseball teams, he excelled.

His quiet ways and subdued humor made Neil a friend of all his fellow classmates.

His bang-up job in managing the sale of Senior Play tickets this year is a feat to be remembered.

Always a help when the class was concerned, Neil did more than his share.

SANDRA D. PARKER

Full of smiles and vigor was Sandy, and she was a bouncy cheerleader and peppy majorette. As treasurer of the class in her junior year and also treasurer of the Hi-Rock, Sandy was kept busy with finances.

Sandy was the Runner-Up in the Basketball Sweetheart Contest last year, as well as Queen of the Christmas Dance as a senior.

Sandy worked on the yearbook as a junior, and she was the recipient of the B. P. W. Scholarship as a senior.

Energetic Sandy was most often found on the dance floor using up some of her boundless energy.

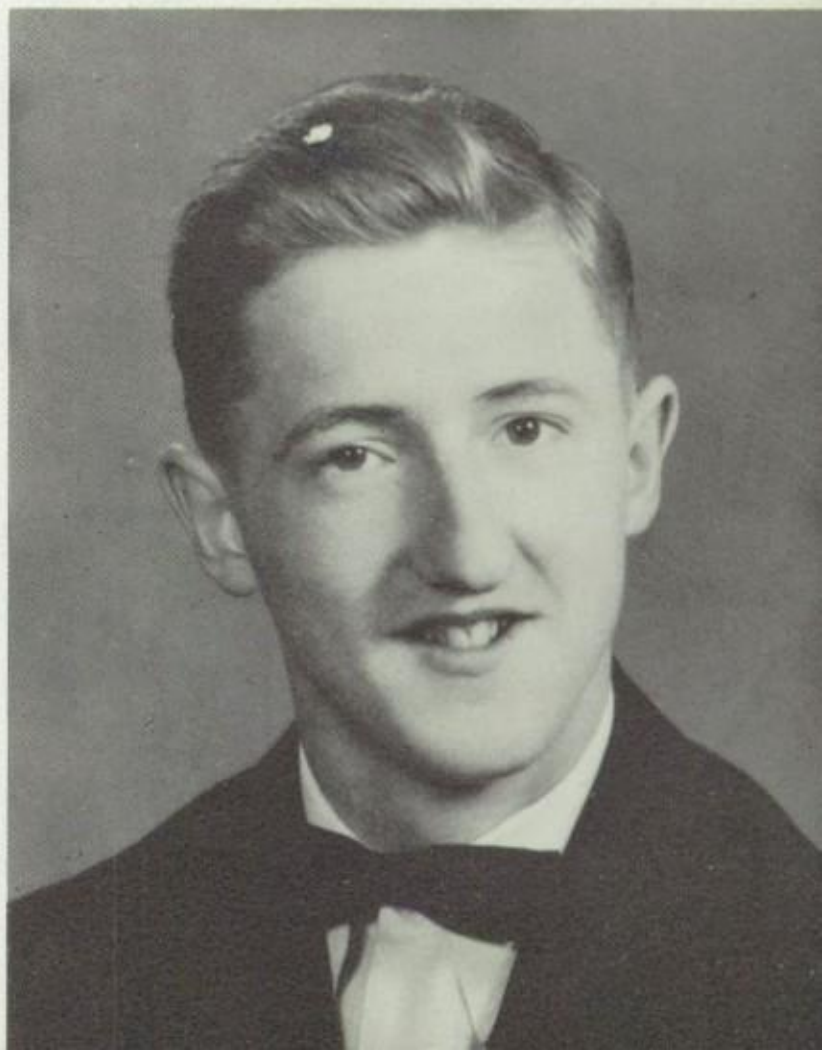
YVONNE L. PARKER

As Christmas Ball Queen and Junior Prom Princess in her junior year, Von reigned with charm and graciousness.

Yvonne proved her academic abilities by being selected as a member of the National Honor Society.

Athletically, Von was active on the bowling and volleyball teams.

In her junior year, the Hackensack and chorus were some of the activities in which she participated.



DUANE H. PERRY

Projection Club was a favorite of Duane's in his freshman and sophomore years. He also was active in other clubs throughout his school years.

Always willing to add a helping hand, Duane went from class to class with a complacent smile, probably due to the fact that he met Barb at every water fountain.

GLORIA F. POTTER

Gloria has been a clarinetist in our school band for four years. She served as a member of the typing staff of the yearbook and she was a member of the National Honor Society as a junior and senior. Gloria will always be associated with her ever-present smile and her cheering voice at our athletic activities.

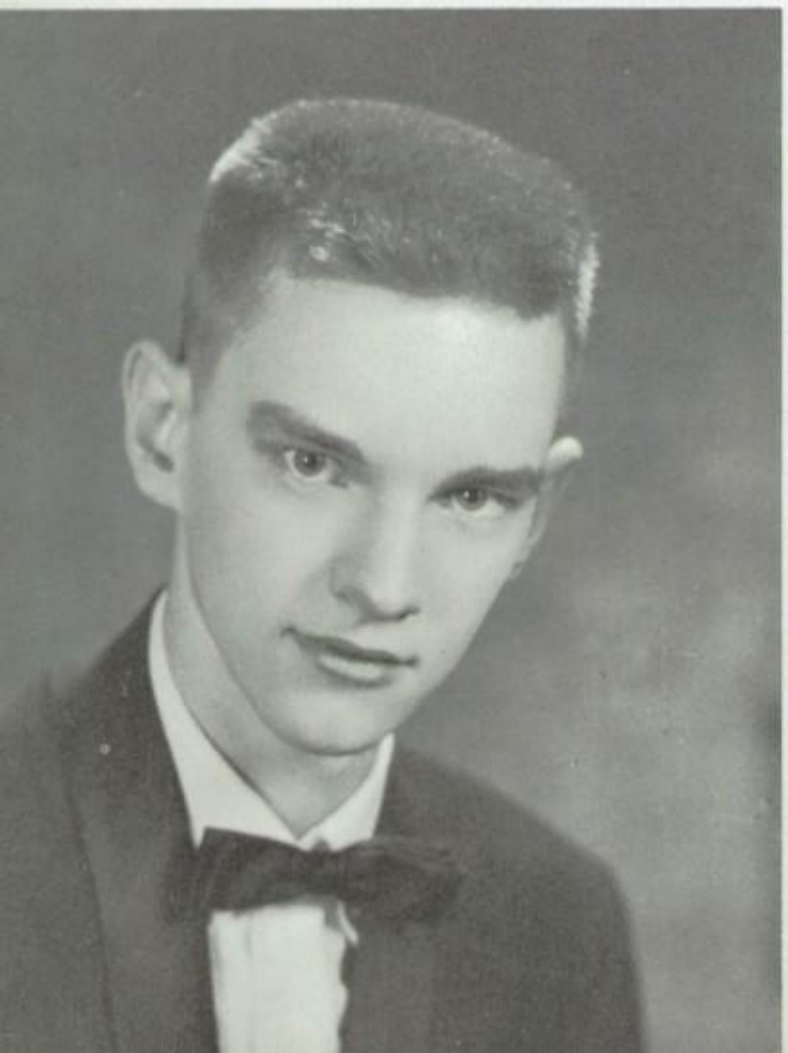
VALERIE L. PRATT

As a member of the National Honor Society and a winner of a N.Y.S. Regents Nursing Scholarship, Val showed her excellent academic achievements.

Her participation in All-State resulted from her hard work in band for four years, chorus for three years, and Girls' Trio for three years.

Val was class president in her junior year and she also participated on the Student Council. Athletically, cheerleading and bowling were popular with Valerie.

She held roles in the Senior Play as a freshman and junior, and she helped with this venture as a senior. Service was one of Val's outstanding qualities.



WILLIAM E. REED

Bill, our school sports reporter, has worked ever so hard on the Hi-Rock Staff during high school. His articles were also seen weekly in the local newspaper. He served on the business staff of the yearbook as a junior and he was a member of boys bowling as a sophomore. Bill printed most of the tickets used for our class pow-wows.

M. BETSEY REMINGTON

Betsey, whose love was music, was an active band member for five years, and a chorus member for four years.. She sang in the Girls' Trio for three years. She attended All-State for band as a freshman and sophomore, and orchestra as a junior and senior.

When a junior, she was chosen United Nations Delegate, and she won the regional Elks' Leadership Award contest.

A yearbook member for three years, Betsey was the Editor-in-Chief as a senior. She was a member of the National Honor Society for two years, a cheerleader for two years, a majorette for three years, and she had a leading role in the Senior Play for two years. Bowling was her favorite school sport and she was a member of the Top Five for two years.

Always trying to do the very best possible, Betsey will always be remembered for her services to her class and school.

ALIX R. RICHARDS

Leaving her home in Puerto Rico, Alix came to our school in her junior year. Being very talented artistically, she made many exceptional posters for the class's activities. Alix was Drum Majorette in her junior year. She served on the Yearbook Literary Staff that year, also.

ALAN R. SEXTON

An excellent bowler, Alan was a member of Boys' Bowling his last three years of high school, serving as a captain of a team and a bowler on the Top Five in his junior and senior years. He also worked hard on the Hi-Rock and the Yearbook Business staff as a junior. He was a member of the soccer team as a senior. Alan's pleasant personality won him many friends throughout high school.

Bob
Keep up your good marks for the remaining years at W.C.S. Remember the class of '60 and study hard and you'll be a

CONSTANCE M. SMITH

A faithful majorette for four years, Connie also took secretarial courses during her high school years.

In her junior year she was a member of the yearbook staff.

Our hopes are with Connie for a secure future.

SANDRA E. STONE

As a yearbook member for two years, Soni participated on both the business and literary staffs.

A four-year member of the band and chorus, Sandra also represented us at All-State for three years. Soni was the second soprano of the Girls' Trio for two years.

National Honor Society was part of Soni's activities, as was bowling, which she took part in for four years. Her junior year she was on the Top Five and was captain of her team in her senior year. Fall will bring marriage for Soni.

WILBERT S. SUTPHIN

Chorus was popular with Bill; he was a member for four years.

For three years Bill participated in band. Throughout his high school years, Bill represented W.C.S. at All-State.

During his last three years at W.C.S., he took part on the bowling and baseball teams

PETER L. SWAN

Pete was a member of the soccer team for one yea..

As a fire warden, Pete guided us out of the building whenever the bell put us through our practice drills.

In the summer months, Pete could be found working arduously on a local Dude Ranch.

Pete's special interest was horses, and one could often find him riding around the countryside.

SHERRYL A. THORNE

Sherryl's high soprano voice blended with the chorus for three years. She also sang in the Girls' sextet.

Being a dependable person, Sherryl was often selected as a committee chairman for dances and other activities of the class.

A cheery smile and friendly "Hello" describes her shining personality.

JACK J. TONEY

A gifted athlete, Jack excelled in all sports. As goalie of our soccer team, he was just about unsurpassed. Basketball was a favorite of Jack's, and he was a high man on the team. Football and baseball were also on his sports calendar.

As a two-year Varsity Club member, Jack served as treasurer during his senior year. He was a captain of a bowling team for three years.

Jack represented our class on the Student Council for all of his years in high school. He was also a member of the Business Staff of the yearbook.

Although Jack was usually busy, he always had time to be friendly to all.

ARLENE P. WASHBURN

Arlene, concerned with outside activities, studied beauty culture at Queensbury during her high school years.

She was also a member of dance club.

Sweet six.

The Junior Class elected Dick Needham, Big Chief; Tom McCormick, Little Chief; and Ann Savage, Keeper of the Notes. Sarah Farrar was appointed Wampum Holder. Lynne Smith and Mildred Saunders were chosen to represent the Juniors at the weekly Student Council Fire, and when Mildred moved away, Dale Aldrich replaced her.

The class sponsored movies and cartoons Saturday afternoons all year long, and starting in March, they held many dances, terminating with the prom. The class of '61, as last year's juniors, had a boat project. The braves worked on the boat and the squaws worked on the publicity for it. It was raffled off on Memorial Day.

January gave them their class rings. June meant Regents and memories of their junior year to carry with them until the next Indian Summer, when they would return to school again, as Seniors.

THEIR WAR BONNETS . . .

The braves of the Sophomore Class, led by President Ruth Mundy, assisted by Vice-President Donald Smith, Secretary Sandra Bunker and Treasurer Joan Burdett, and represented by David Steele on Student Council, created an uprising in the long house.

The Braves brought the Junior Varsity basketball team to victory, and three maids on the Squaw Squad urged them on.

Initiation of the Young Braves by the Braves into the tribe was the big event in the Young Braves lives. The dance given by us for them was a huge success with all turning out for the toga.

SEARCHING FOR NEW WAYS

The young braves of the Freshman Class, following Chief Charles Niles, kept the fires burning late and brought much wampum to the home wigwam. They were danced into our togas by the sophomores and gave them a rousing return dance. The assistant chiefs were Dan Sheehan, vice-president and Council Fire representative, Jean Combs, taker of all notes, and Bo Lindfors, collector of all dues. They proved that we were braves on the football, basketball and baseball teams. They sold pens in the school colors to raise money for our trip to the home of the Great White Father, three summers hence.

F. T. A.

The Future Teachers of America Club took on a new look this year. Led by our president, Betsey Remington, we had a campaign for new members, and accepted students from grades 8 - 12. Other officers were Sharon Hunter, vice-president; Ruth Ellen Mundy, secretary; Mary Crandall, program chairman; and Alice Thayer, historian.

It was proven in FTA this year that a larger membership increases the value of the club. With a larger membership we were able to participate in many more activities with other schools in the vicinity.

At the beginning of the year Sally Potter was elected president; Janis Kenyon, vice-president; Donna Koch, secretary; and Bev Burch, treasurer. With the departure of Sally Potter, Janis took over as president.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Photography Club is a new organization in high school this year. Under the guidance of Mr. Meola, its members take and develop their own personal snapshots. The boys have become familiar with some of the new equipment such as the photography enlarger. They are a very active club, and some members have entered the Eastman Kodak photography contest. An exhibit was put up in the school lobby by displaying the winners of previous Kodak contests. The Photography club was responsible for this display.

The Library Club is a very ambitious lot. They shelve books, mark at the charging desk. They also mend old books, paste cards in new books, and keep the magazine rack straight.

When the librarian is not in, they help people find books and offer information about books.

Soon the Library Club will learn how to use the Dewey Decimal System.

HELPED US BUILD

The Hi-Rock staff assembled early in November and elected its officers: Editor-In-Chief, Candy Combs; Assistant Editor, Marianne Mundy; and Treasurer, Pat Hastings. The Hi-Rock came out every month. Our harried but helpful advisor, Mr. Herrick, devoted a great deal of his time to the benefit of the Hi-Rock. Charlie Niles did a bang-up job on the sports and the paper would not have been complete without Bonnie's "Current Chatter." We ended up, for the third time in a row, with a banquet at LaCabanna, after a year of rushing around, typing madly, and worrying about the dead line—finally to settle down and read through the Hi-Rock with a very pleasing sense of achievement.

Varsity Club is a fairly new organization with a very important job. Through its fund-raising campaigns enough cash is accumulated to pay for all officials at our soccer, football, basketball and baseball games. Some of these fund-raising projects were the sale of T-shirts and sweat shirts to the pupils throughout the school, the sale of warm wool jackets to the boys in high school, and the fabulous Faculty-Varsity game.

GIRLS BOWLING

Mrs. Cudney gathered the girls who wanted to bowl for a season, in the fall. Captains were chosen out of the senior girls. Teams were formed, and then the fun started.

Every Tuesday after school, the girls trudged up to the alleys, hoping to be early enough to get a pair of shoes that fit and "the only ball they could bowl with!"

Soon the season was in full swing, and all had loads of fun, especially the TOP FIVE.

BOYS BOWLING

The boys bowled on Mondays after school. They were the real experts, and loved to show the "squaws" all that they knew about the sport.

Weekends would find the boys practicing up, and wishing that they bowled as well on Mondays as they could on weekends!

Many averages were raised and much fun was had by all.

OUR COUNCIL FIRE HELD

This school year, the Student Council did many new and profitable things for the school.

Besides the events depicted on the following pages, the Student Council bought pompoms for the cheerleaders, distributed trash cans around the school for the benefit of the school's appearance, and generally improved the outlook and condition of the school and its students.

New rules and regulations for dances were passed and enforced.

The Ineligible Students List was brought into existence.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS, Left to right: Frank Mundy, president; Lynne Smith, vice-president; Danny Sheehan, secretary; and Ruth Mundy, treasurer.

This year Student Council revised Dance Club. Dues were paid and regular attendance was required. It worked out much better this way.

The Student Council members attended a few dances and meetings of the New York State Student Council Association, as this year they joined that organization.

In the other party, the Liberals, the candidates in order were Bob Millward, Lynne Smith, and Mildred Saunders.

The winners were Frank Mundy as president, Lynne Smith as vice-president, and Mildred Saunders as secretary. Ruth Mundy was appointed treasurer.

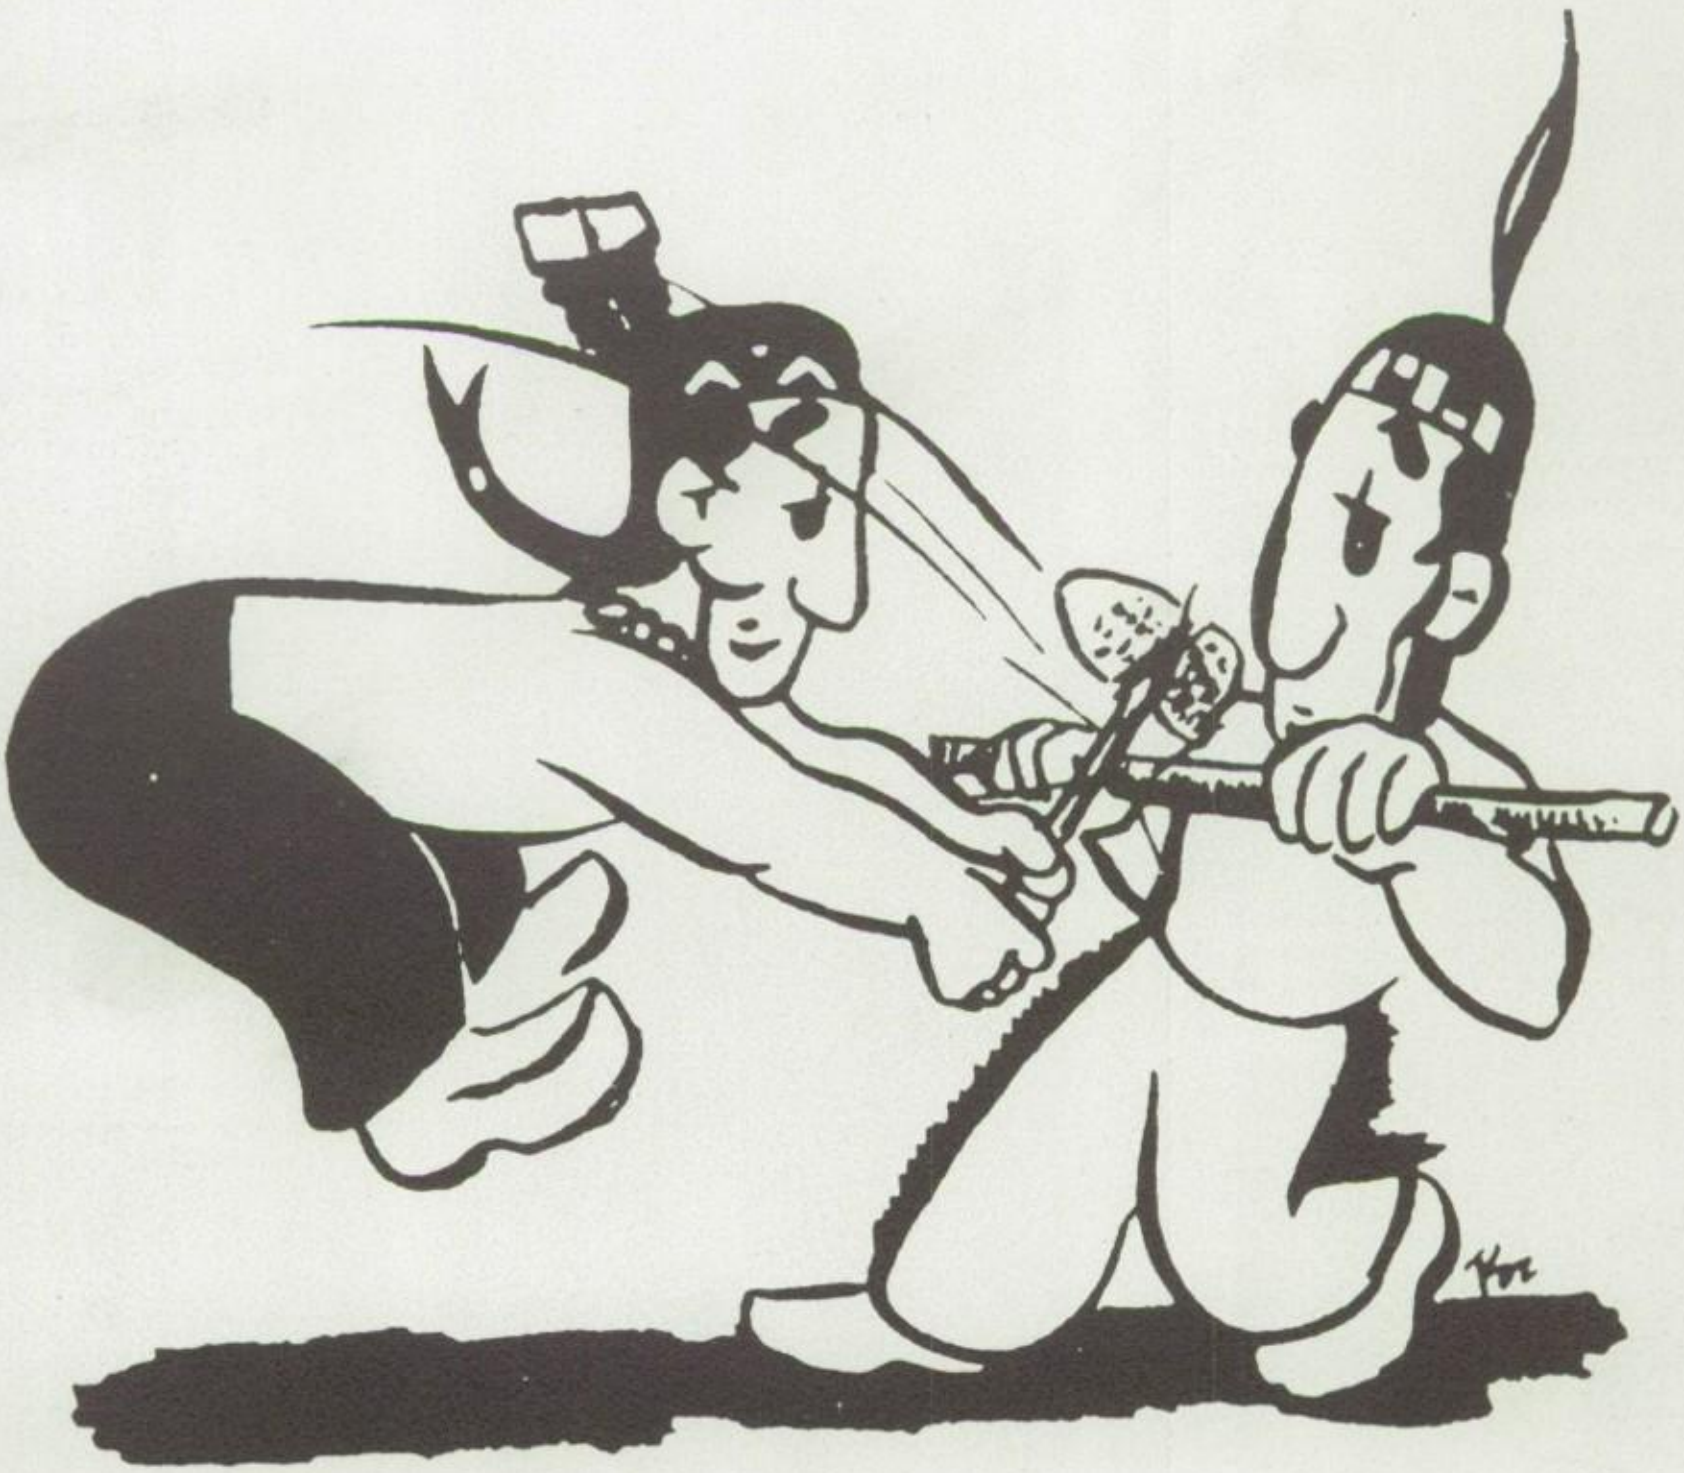
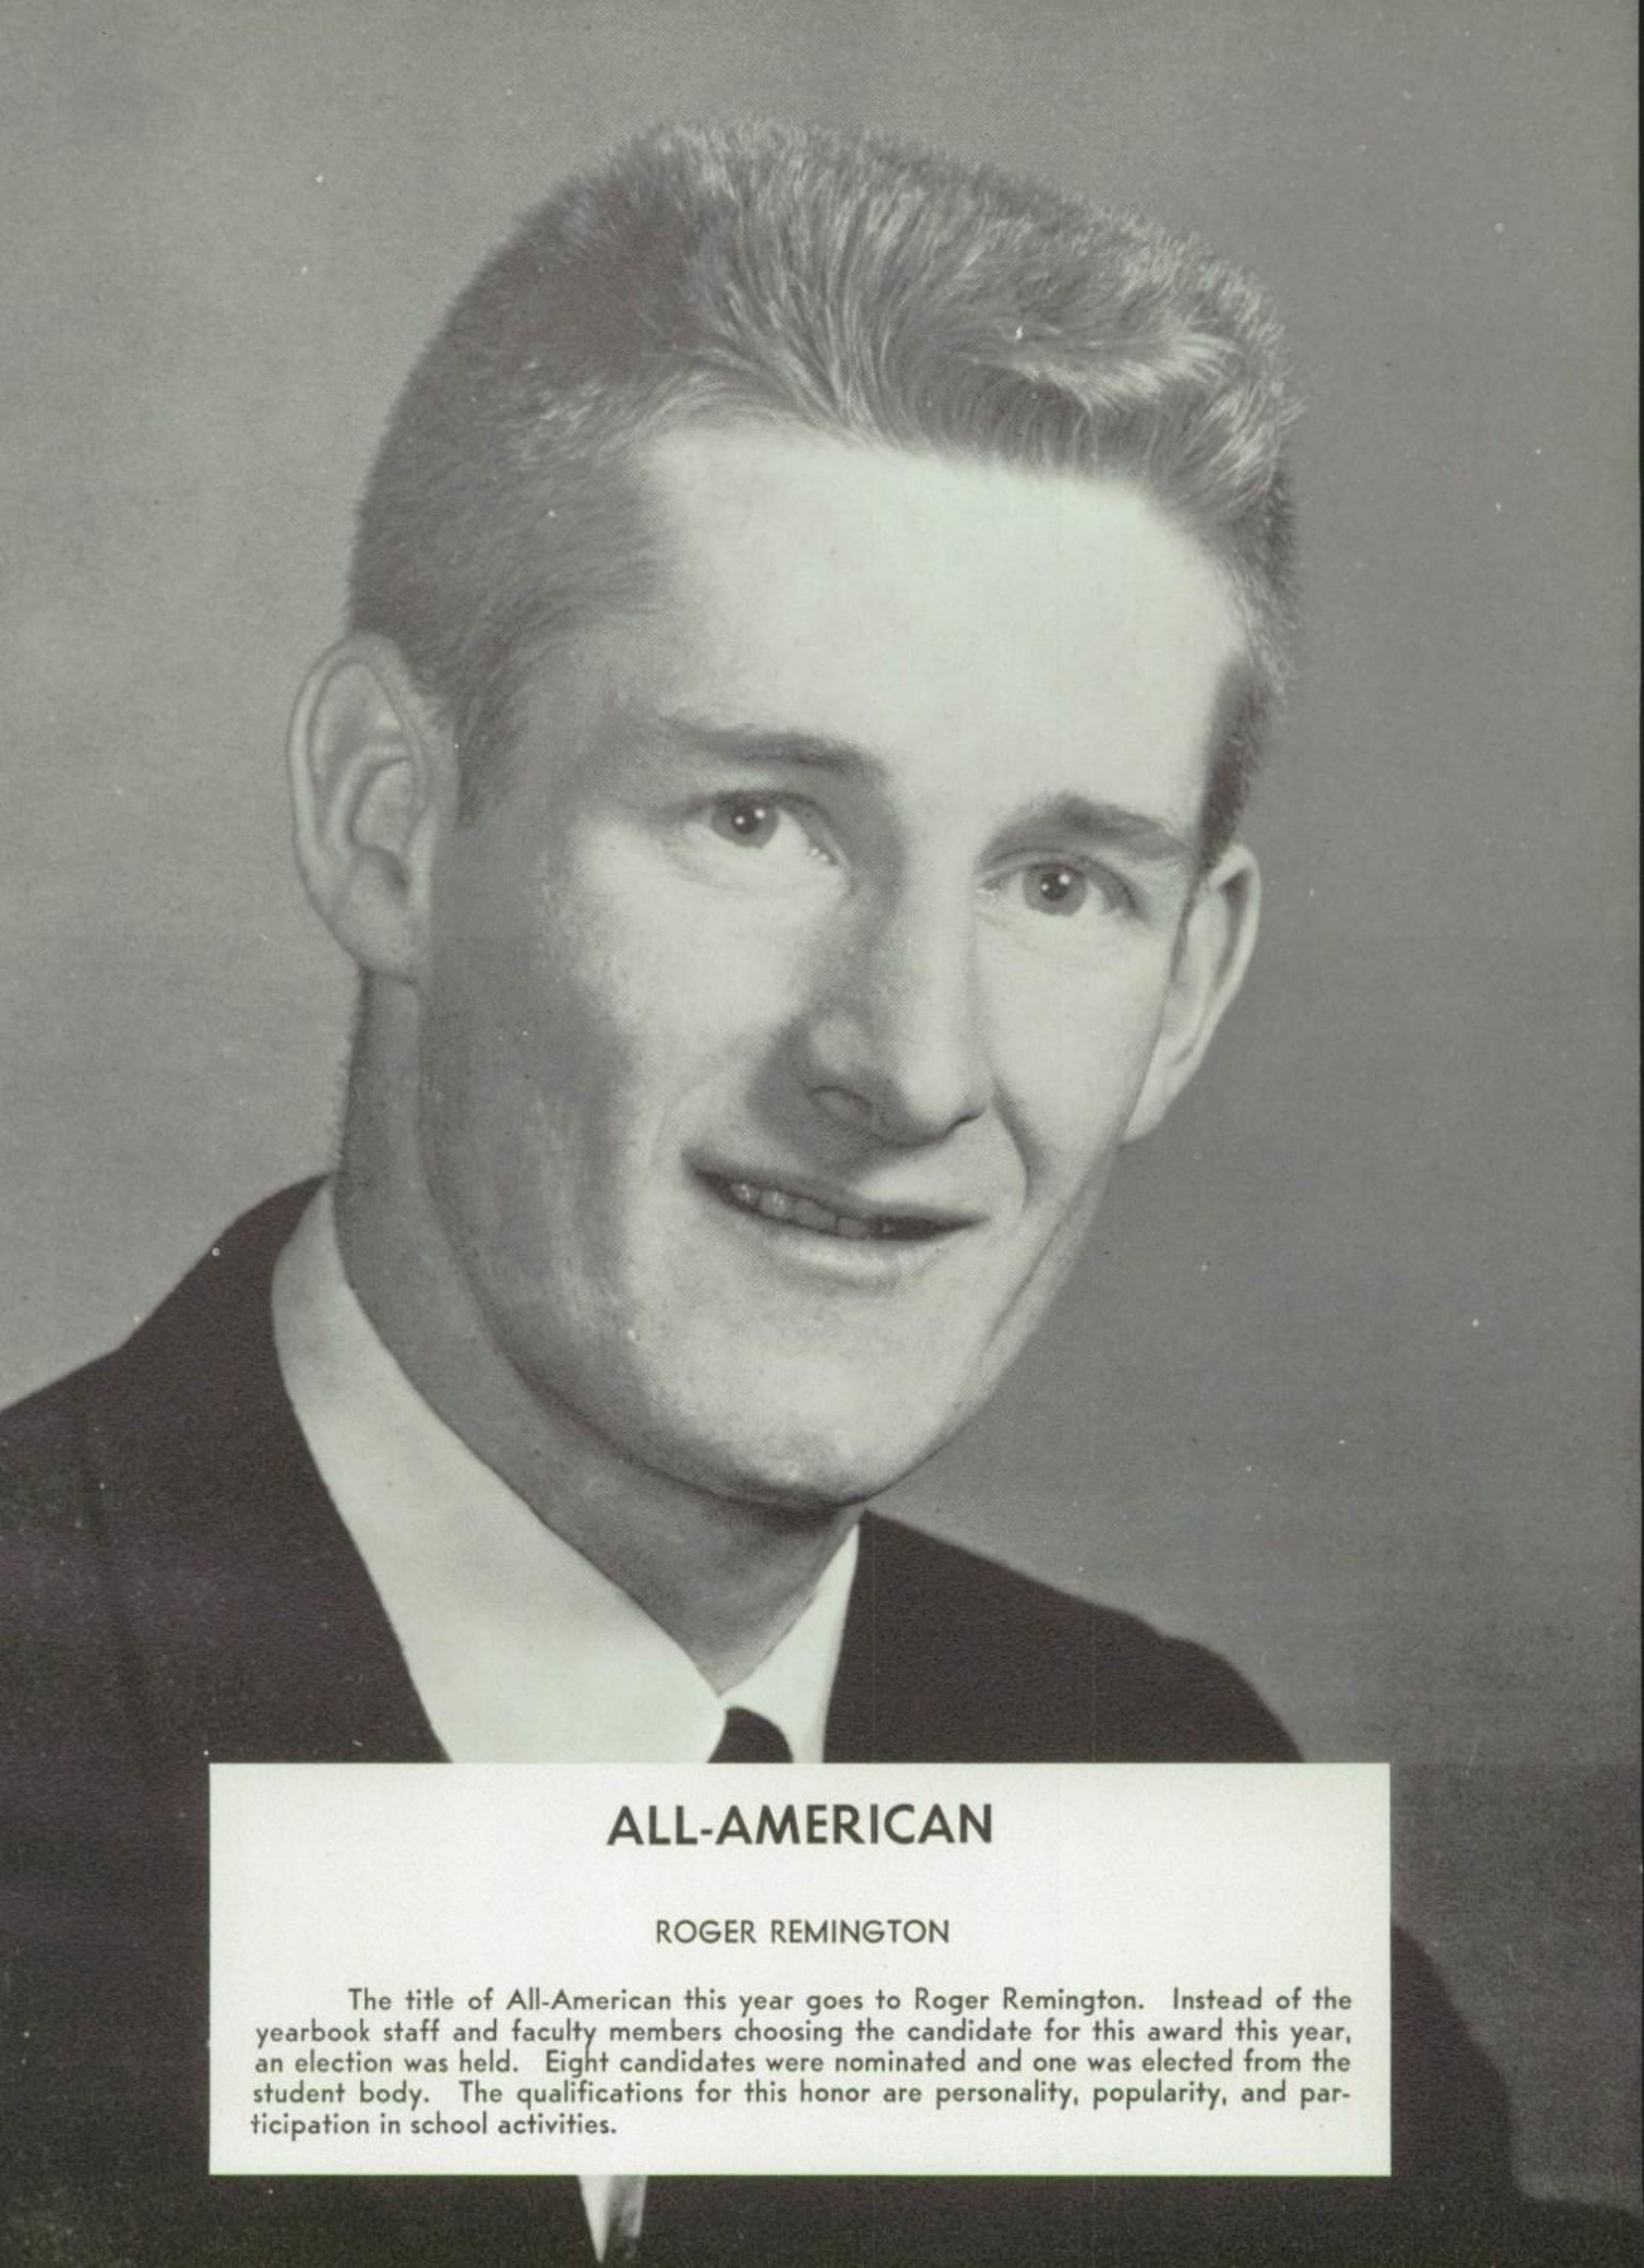
SPORTS



BASKETBALL SWEETHEART

YVONNE PARKER

Again, the yearbook has sponsored the annual Basketball Sweetheart contest. Each class, from Freshmen to Seniors, nominate two candidates to participate in the contest and from these eight candidates, the entire Junior and Senior High vote to elect the winner. The Basketball Sweetheart is awarded this honor based on her personality, popularity, and participation in school activities. The yearbook staff is happy to announce that this year the winner is Yvonne Parker.



ALL-AMERICAN

ROGER REMINGTON

The title of All-American this year goes to Roger Remington. Instead of the yearbook staff and faculty members choosing the candidate for this award this year, an election was held. Eight candidates were nominated and one was elected from the student body. The qualifications for this honor are personality, popularity, and participation in school activities.

Coach Khoury

OUR FAITHFUL ATHLETIC SQUADS

Our football team gained many coups this year, losing only one game to Schuylerville. When we played the first game, we were thankful for the long, hard practices Coach Khoury had put us through. Roger Remington, with the help of our co-captains, Clark Barlow and Eddie Merrithew, led our team to second place for the third consecutive year in our league. Next year our sights will be set for the top.

DID WELL FOR THEMSELVES,

The J. V. Team did quite well this year, winning one out of three games. They learned their plays, practiced hard, gained experience through scrimmage with the varsity team, and really learned what the game of football is like.

With Don Smith at quarterback and different captains for each game, they proved that they will be a help, not a burden, to next year's team.

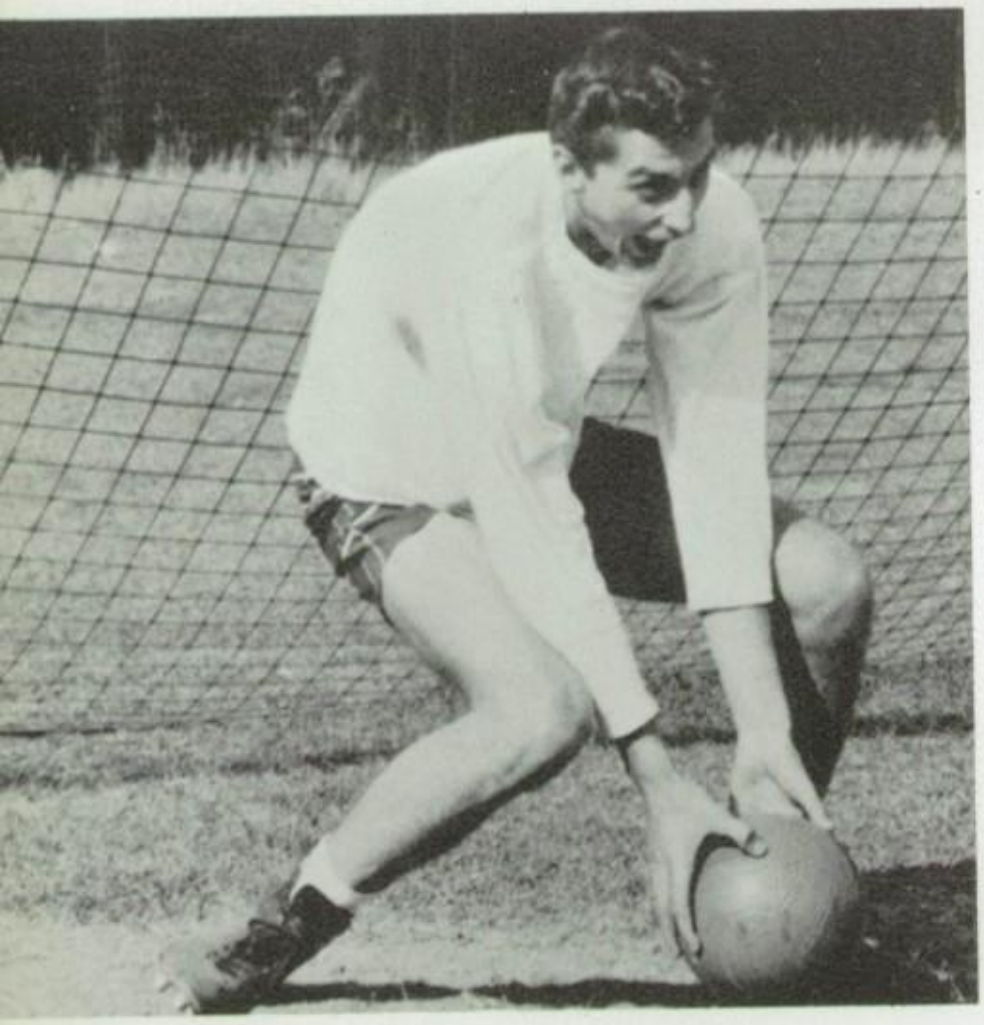
SOCCER

The Soccer Team had the best season ever in its history. After a rousing victory over the Queensmen, in their first game, they were more determined than ever to place well in the Adirondack League.

Its strong forward line consisting of Dick Needham, center; Pete Swan and Oscar Liberos, inners; and Paul Burch and Dave McNeill, wings; posed a terrific threat to the opposition. The defensemen were the strongest yet: Jack Toney, goalie; Neil Parker and Lyman Russell, fullbacks; and Carlton Griffin, Rodney Parker, and Giles Jennings, halfbacks, all put on brilliant exhibitions of playmanship in the games.



"Another save by Jack"

AND THEY PROVED THEIR

Because of their excellent league record, the team participated in the Sectional Playoffs for their first time, against Northville. After a thrilling scoreless battle, Northville edged the contest taking four of their penalty kicks to our two. Despite their loss, the boys had a good right to be proud of their season's showing.

Mr. Cranker certainly had a soccer team to be proud of this year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

After an exciting season of competition, our Varsity squad captured second place in the Adirondack League. Led by high scorers Roger Remington and Jack Toney, it also racked up an enviable non-league record. Sophomore member of the team, Jerry Reed, proved himself more than capable in filling a top notch position on the squad.

Coach Khoury has a right to be very proud of the "Burgers" this year of twelve moons.

WE RECOGNIZED THIS

Throughout our sports calendar, there's action, and also plenty of fun for all.

Junior Varsity Squaw Squad

AS A DYING SACRIFICE,

Both squads squawked the team on to victory in the basketball games and were well rewarded. Pemmican after games and peace dances after an exciting war were much fun.

The little princesses cheered for the Varsity-Faculty game in April against the faculty cheerleaders.

J.V.'s captain was Princess Sandy Bunker, and Varsity's was Head Princess Bonnie Binder.

The All-Star squawkers were Bonnie Binder, Marianne Mundy, Diane France, and Ruth Mundy.

The squawking princesses tried out last spring and were assigned to their squaw squads. In the fall, they practiced their war chants fervently on the football field and each chose a brave to represent in the individual chant. They decided upon their war costumes and displayed them at the football games.

After the first snow, the little princesses changed their costumes.

Wrestling, the newest sport in the tribe, got off to a good start.

Our 15-man squad, coached by Roscoe Hastings, was composed mostly of freshmen and juniors.

Although the team belonged to no league this year, it played many of the area schools including Glens Falls, So. Glens Falls, Hudson Falls and others.

In March the team participated in the sectionals in Schenectady.

Because of the fine turnout for wrestling this year, we can look forward to a fine team next year and a name in a wrestling league.

GLORY TO THE TRIBE.

This year with the coming of spring and dry ground, the baseball team fervently started to practice. With undampened enthusiasm, they brought up their batting averages, and became experts at fielding and sliding bases. They came into an unblemished season and hoped for a fine record.

Last year we had a reasonably successful season with only 3 league losses. Because of an early press date, last year's scores and picture are being published.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Here, eating up the profits, are Sandra Stone, Alix Richards, and Yvonne Parker. Of course they didn't really eat up all of the profits! Our Pancake Supper was a rousing success due mainly to the tremendous cooperation of the class with the kitchen staff, headed by Judy Benedict. Everyone pitched in to do a terrific job and even the cleaning up was fun. Those golden brown pancakes were a hit with every customer, especially Mr. Meola. Applesauce and sausages were served to round out the menu.

OUR PANCAKE SUPPER

"Another satisfied customer."

"Frankie watches to see that they don't get too brown."

"Flo works industriously."

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

Besides the pancake supper, card selling, and the Senior Play, another of our important projects, and a new one this year, was sponsoring a House of David basketball game.

These expert exhibition ballplayers put on a hilariously funny performance which was enjoyed by young and old alike.

Here Bob, our President, closes the arrangement for the game with Bob Roth, head man for the House of David team.

and OTHER CLASS PROJECTS.

Mr. Durling, our class portrait photographer, traveled around in circles trying to get everything in on time. He also did much of the yearbook photography.

The most important senior activity was, of course, study, which, even though it didn't get us to Washington (that was strictly money) did get us those all-important diplomas in June.

"The cast takes a bow."

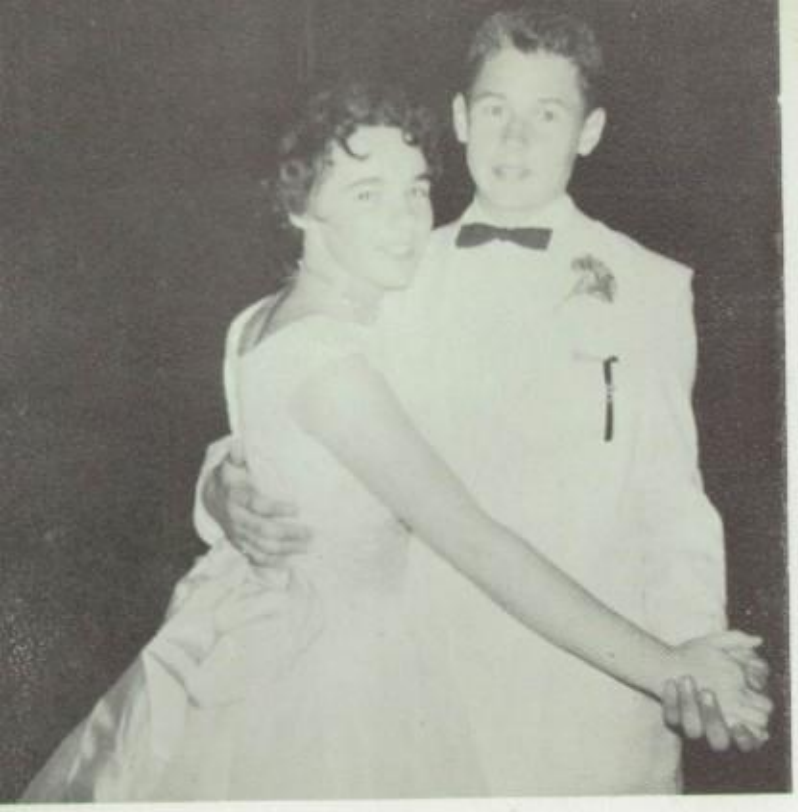
"Aren't you the one!"

This rousing comedy proved to be the most successful Senior Play ever, in both playmanship and profits. The class made well over $400 for their big trip. Acting was superb, and many very complimentary comments were received by everyone who took part. Our able director, Miss Anna Wranovics and her assistant, Miss Beverly Bromley, deserved much of the credit for producing such a fine display of acting.

Miss Bromley and Miss Wranovics, the proud directors.

"I wanted to go to Lillian's book review in the first place."

They're purged!



"Ruth and Gary"

The class of '60 sponsored two very successful "Dressy Dances." Their Junior Prom had a candy theme, and ice cream cone trees and giant candy canes were part of the lovely decorations.

Our Princess Yvonne and Prince Edward, at the CANDYLAND BALL, May, 1959

Their Christmas Dance was generously decked wi th Christmas trees, ornaments, and a large mirror ball swirling in the middle of the gymnasium. Or chestras were hired for both of these special dances, and much fun was had by all.

It was a great day for Warrensburg Central School when its boy and girl top bowlers assembled in Albany, N. Y. along with representatives from over fifty more schools in this section of the state.

The boys did well, turning up 11th out of over forty teams, and tying for fourth high single with Jack Toney's 224 game.

The girls, however, vied for the attention of their schoolmates with top honors at the competition. Out of the total sixteen schools competing for girls bowling honors, these girls turned up first, and proceeded to bring home ten of the total of fifteen trophies given at the affair. Lynne Smith took top honors with a high single of 202 and high triple of 499. Betsey Remington brought home the second high triple trophy with a 476. The team rallied to win high total pins and high single game bowled by a team. All the girls had 400 or over triples, and they were overjoyed about the whole situation. Congratulations to these two top teams!

Our Honor Society has been named The Benjamin Franklin Cameron Chapter of the National Honor Society.

This year's new members are: Paul Gilchrist, Lynne Smith, Candy Combs, Sarah Farrar, and Pat Hastings.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

ALL-STATE BAND—Left to right: Betsey Remington, bassoon; Heather Gilchrist, French horn; Gene Lane, baritone; Judy Frulla, clarinet; Valerie Pratt, baritone saxophone; and Candy Combs, cornet.

On the weekend of November 14, 1959, these lucky and talented students traveled to Lake Placid to participate in the All-State festival there. They stayed overnight Friday, and the concert took place Saturday evening after many tedious but rewarding rehearsals.

The chorus members were Frank Mundy, Adrian Frulla, Wilbert Sutphin, Edward Chamberlain, Roderic Kenyon, Marianne Mundy, Sandra Stone, Nancy Bates and Jennie Hastings. They were accompanied by Mr. Niles and Mr. Claus.

Surprised, Mr. Niles? ? ?

ADVERTISEMENTS

LITERARY STAFF—Left to right: Neilia Campbell, Betsey Remington, Editor-in-Chief; Ruth Mundy, Pat Hastings, Sharon Granger, Jim Jackson, Candy Combs, Copy Editor; Sharon Hunter, Mary Crandall.

"That's the right word!"

"Finally."

Janet and Maxine type the copy

Betsey Remington, Editor-in-Chief

The literacy staff worked after school, Saturday mornings, even during exam week!

Their goal was a better yearbook with a more unique theme than ever.

Chuck Wheeler took pictures with the help of Betsey and Pat. Ruth and her helpers laid out pages. Candy and Jimmy wrote copy and the efficient typing staff prepared it for the printer.

Mrs. Chapin was always on hand for vital assistance. A familiar sound was, "Ask Mrs. Chapin."

Betsey worked long and late hours to turn out a yearbook that everyone is proud of.

The business staff began selling ads in the fall and worked all winter to promote the Hackensack.

Bob and Dick were the speiling businessmen who headed the totem pole. Heather, Lynne and Cindy Rumble were next in line and ably assisted Bob and Dick with their "scalping."

In April the ads were in, the bills were paid, and the yearbook draft had been sent away. In June, everyone who had worked on the annual felt greatly rewarded.

The Warrensburg P. T. A. Offers These Suggestions:

Forget the slander you have heard;
Forget the hasty, unkind word;
Forget the quarrel and the cause,
Forget the whole affair because
Forgetting is the only way.
Forget the storms of yesterday;
Forget you ever get the blues,
But don't forget to pay your dues.
